Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared by experienced pharmacists of today, who have brought to the production of this great medicine the best results of medical research. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a modern medicine, containing just those vegetable ingredients which were seemingly intended by Nature herself for the alleviation of human ills. It purifies and enriches the blood, tones the stomach and digestive organs and creates an appetite; it absolutely cures all scrofula eruptions, boils, pimples, sores, salt rheum, and every form of skin disease; cures liver complaint, kidney troubles, strengthens and builds up the nervous system. It entirely overcomes that tired feeling, giving strength and energy in place of weakness and languor. It wards off malaria, typhoid fever, and by purifying the blood it keeps the whole system healthy.

MAUI'S GRIST OF NEWS

Wailuku, Maui, Sept. 23. — Mannuel C. Ross, Sr., died at Ma-lulani Hospital last Monday morning Sept. 18--aged about 45 years.
He was buried at the Catholic Cemetery in the old family vault on the following Tuesday. Mr.
Ross was kamaaina of Wailuku nei, and at one time owned an extensive interest in the hack business in this town. He leaves a wife and one legal heir, Manuel C.
Ross, Jr., a son by a former wife.

No less than a half a dozen Japanese laborers from Kibei Plantation are reported to have died at the Malulani Hospital during this month, two having died yesterday. The trouble is said to be on account of the water, but others believe the plowing up of new soil has something to do with the increase in the death of the Japanese laborers.

The 14 months old infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thomas died yesterday at the family residence in Wailuku of convulsions.
The funeral took place today.

Geo. Hayselden, the popular postmaster of Lahaina, has resigned his post and will go to Honolulu next month to work with his brother in Henry May & Co.'s grocery store. Arthur Wall, a brother-in-law of Mr. C. B. Oleen, manager of Hackfeld & Co.'s Lahaina store, has been given the place.

The members of the Kaahumanu native church went in a body to the home of Judge and Mrs. Kalua last Sunday evening and presented the bereaved family with resolutions of condolence, expressing deep and sincere sympathy in the sad loss of their daughter Agnes Nunehiwalani Kalua.

A son was born to the wife of John Vasconcelles, engineer at Kahului, last evening.

At a recent Sunday school in Halawa, Molokai, the teacher asked a class of about ten small native boys and girls if they knew what a centurion, mentioned in the Bible, was. A bright little girl of five summers replied that she did. The whole class looked at her with astonishment, when out came the answer was that she had seen lots of them in Honolulu—"chicken thieves."

Ex-Sergeant Harry Burton of the United States army, and who had seen service on heights of Santiago, is now drilling the Wai-luku police the manual of arms and marching movements according to the latest approved Upton's tactics.

Mr. Henshall, the Honolulu attorney, was a caller at Wailuku this week on his way to Huelo.
He returns to town to day.

Several members of the Wailuku Citizens' Guard had target practice this week at the butts on the Sandhill. Scores of 40 were made under the most trying conditions.
The ammunition was poor, so were the guns and the range.

Henry M. Poeppoe, who has been occupying the Kaahumanu pulpit for the past three months, will soon return to take up a postgraduate course at the N. P. Missionary Institute, Honolulu.

Miss Kirkland of Kahului is teaching temporarily at the Waihee school in place of Miss Webster who declined to accept the position on account of small pay and returned to Honolulu last week. Mr. S. Kellinui principal, reports that the school has a daily attendance of 143 pupils now, and will reach 150 in a week or two.

"To Throw Good Money After Bad Will but increase my pain." If you have thrown away money for medicines that did not and could not cure, why should you not now begin taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the medicine that never disappoints? Thousands of people who were in your condition and took Hood's Sarsaparilla say it was the best investment they ever made, for it brought them health.

Hood's Pills cure sick headache, indigestion.

Pantographs are largely used as a source of amusement by young and old while they guide the unskilled hand
